Do you know what Plogging is? It's a physical activity created in Sweden, which combines walking with litter picking. To start you just need your running shoes and a bin bag to pick up what you find on the ground. This way you exercise in the open air while helping the environment.

When it's time to recharge batteries, there are a few factors to bear in mind. Light will accompany us through the darkness of the night and so changing traditional light bulbs for LED bulbs is a step on the right direction. Pay attention to the planet's beat, because it tells us what it needs. We can always relax while thinking ECOlogic.
